

NUMEROUS ENTERTAINMENTS FOR THE DEBUTANTES

Society Is Keenly Interested in Recent Recruits to Its Ranks from Well Known Families—Fetes in Support of Worthy Charities Are Many

scheduled to take place early in the new year were learned last week. They are those of Miss Elvia Zabriske, and Miss Russell Trowbridge Bailey, and Miss Grace M. Bedford, and Harold M. Lloyd, Miss Bedford, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thomas Bedford, will be married on January 27 at the home of her parents, 181 Clinton av. Invitations will be limited to relatives and a few intimate friends. Miss Helen Wood will be the maid of honor, and the other attendants of the bride will be her sister, Mrs. Ernest Chalkley Willis and Mrs. Clinton S. Lukins, Jr. Mr. Lloyd, who is the son of the Rev. Dr. John Elmy Lloyd, pastor of the Old Dutch Church, Flatbush, will have as best man James McLaren, who married Miss Gwendolyn Lloyd. The ushers will be S. Goldthwaite Sherrill, William Hawley, William Allen and Archibald McLaren.

Miss Zabriske, whose engagement to Mr. Bailey was announced last summer, will be married on January 30. The ceremony will take place at 4 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. Cornelius Zabriske, 846 Carroll st. No further details have yet been arranged.

Of interest on the Heights is the wedding of Miss Emily Pierrepont Gould, daughter of Mrs. James Henry Gould, and the Rev. George Ashton Oldham, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Convent av. and West 141st st., which is set for January 14. The bride is a cousin of John Jay Pierrepont and the Misses Pierrepont and a niece of Mrs. Wilhelms Mynderse, of the Heights. The Cathedral of St. John the Divine will be the scene of the ceremony. Bishop Greer and the Rev. Ernest M. Stires will officiate.

The latest addition to the debutante festivities is the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Robert Low Pierrepont will give at their home, 140 Columbia Heights, on Saturday evening, January 16. This is certain to be one of the buds' gayest parties.

Mrs. Edward M. Grout and Miss Katharine Grout, of 860 Carroll st., are receiving Sundays, December 27, and January 9 and 23. Miss Alice Pierce, of Bridgeport, Conn., whose engagement to Jonathan Grout was announced last summer, is receiving with them.

Mrs. Robert Burns was formerly Miss Dorothy Raegener Mott, daughter of Charles Tenney Mott, and a granddaughter of the late Rev. Herman Raegener. Mr. Burns is the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burns, of 904 President st., and was graduated from Cornell in 1907. The wedding took place at Westhampton Beach in October. Mr. and Mrs. Burns are now making their home at 126 Greene av.

nell, Miss Katherine Ketcham, Miss Gertrude Thurston, Miss Lois Minton, Miss Eleanor Tyler, Miss Louise Ruxton, Miss Catharine Mumford, of Brooklyn; Miss Anna Snow, of Philadelphia, and Miss Nina Newton, of Ridgefield, Conn. They were entertained after the reception at a dinner and dance.

Mrs. Alexander Drummond Marks, of 109 Willow st., gave a large reception yesterday afternoon to introduce her daughter, Miss Constance Marks. In the evening there was a dinner and a dance for the receiving party, which included Miss Gertrude Thurston, Miss Elizabeth Thayer, Miss Polly Dunnell, Miss Catharine Mumford, Miss Ruth Shaffer, Miss Katherine Ketcham, Miss Louise Ruxton, Miss Ruth Jenks, Miss Frances Cutts, Miss Cecelia Brewster, Miss Helen Hinman, Miss Lois Minton, Miss Mary Sanger, Miss Mabel Haynes, Miss Drusilla Gravens and Miss Eleanor Tyler.

In compliment to Miss Grace Middleton and Miss Hannah White, of Worcester, Mass., Miss Dorothy Seamans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Seamans, yesterday gave a the dansant at her home, 789 St. Mark's av. Mrs. Clifford Middleton, mother of the guest of honor, assisted at the tea table.

Among the young people present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Graham (Doris Webster), Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Balfe, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lydecker, Mr. and Mrs. John Cowdrey Grier—all bridal couples of the last year—Miss Jean Murray, Miss Juliet Griffith, Miss Ruth Jenks, Miss Jessie Hopkins, Miss Helen Thorne, Miss Marie Lovett, Miss Dorothy Luckenbach, Miss Dorothy Stutzer, Miss Helen Simms, Miss Edith Shaw, Miss Kate Corinne Schuyler-Walden, Miss Hazel Hutchinson, Miss Louise Higgins, Miss Alice Blum, Miss Marjorie Beckley, Miss Marjorie Church, Miss Janet Bowers, Miss Agnes Bigelow, Miss Jeanette Davenport, Miss Marguerite Mallett, Miss Agnes de Selding, Charles Graham, John O'Brien, Paul Bonner, Dunbar Adams, Richard Barnes, Francis Page, Clinton Mumford, Jr., Reynolds Bishop, Sidney Thirkield, Harvey Street, Henry Holt, George Robert, Cary Sayre, Newell Vanderhoef, Marshall Vanderhoef, Wolcott Meserole, Nelson Dougherty, Frank Ellis, Guy McCorkle, Guy Mallett, Carlton Palmer, Edward Bullwinkle, Gordon Schenck and Newton Schenck.

Miss Katharine Holman Ketcham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holman Ketcham, of 108 Willow st., is to be a debutante to-morrow. Receiving with Mrs. Ketcham and her daughter will be Miss Eleanor Deans, of Philadelphia; Miss Louise Ruxton, Miss Mary Sanger, Miss Mary Caroline Pratt, Miss Ruth Jenks, Miss Cecelia Brewster, Miss Frances Cutts, Miss Katharine Dana, Miss Polly Dunnell, brought from the association, and the laughter and applause were most gratifying to the author, William Cary Duncann.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Royce, of 1189 Dean st., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Royce, to Gilbert Coutant Halsted, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert C. Halsted, of 308 Washington av. Mr. Halsted graduated from Cornell in 1914.

In compliment to Miss Helen Carlsen Clarke and Miss Marion Mac-lenkamp, Miss Lulu Beniger, Mrs. Appleton Clarke, Mrs. Arthur Kavanagh, Mrs. J. I. Adams, Mrs. James Develin, Mrs. C. B. Fabor, Miss Grace Fabor, Mrs. Harry Russell, Mrs. Gustav Ballin, J. H. Grenves, Mrs. William Richardson, Mrs. S. D. Crocker, Miss Alice Kennedy, Miss Edith Manley, Mrs. R. Mosely, Mrs. H. Humiston and others.

The engagement has recently been announced of Miss Maude de Noorman Cammann, daughter of Oswald N.

Mrs. Wm. Lightfoot Schultz
MARCEAU PHOTO

Mrs. Robert Burns

CURTIS BELL PHOTO

Miss Dorothy Conron DAVIS C. SANFORD PHOTO

Dana, George B. Blake and others as members, and practise for games has begun.

Mrs. William Hazard Field and Miss Mary P. Field are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William B. O. Field until after the holidays. William G. De Witt and Richard L. Maynard have been their guests or a part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Giraud Foster will pass a part of the winter at Palm Beach. Mr. Foster is remaining for a time to play on the curling team, and they will start southward after the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Foster gave a large luncheon party on Wednesday.

Professor William H. Carpenter has leased a cottage in Stockbridge for next season.

MANY NOTABLES AT WHITE SULPHUR

Well Known Folks from Europe and America Are Registered at Resort.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Dec. 19.—The second annual New Year's Eve celebration promises to be the biggest event of the winter season at the New Greenbrier, and for the last ten days reservations have been coming in from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Pittsburgh, as well as Richmond, Charlottesville, Charleston, Wheeling and other cities in Virginia and West Virginia, for accommodations and tables for dinner and supper parties.

Governor-elect and Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, who spent the Thanksgiving holidays here, are returning on Thursday next for the holidays, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, who were here last Christmas, are expected back, as are Sir Robert and Lady Hatfield, Robert Williams Gibson, George W. Stevens, Harry S. Black, Theodore P. Shonts and a number of others.

Principe Francesco Rospigliosi, of Rome, and the princess, the latter formerly Miss McDonald-Stallo, of Cincinnati, who arrived a fortnight ago for the cure, will spend the holiday season here and entertain a large party at the New Year's Eve celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Medill McCormick, who came for the shooting and hunting seasons and the cure, will remain over, as will Lieutenant Colonel Steven L.H. Slocum and Mrs. Slocum, who have been joined by Captain and Mrs. Edward Simpson, of Baltimore.

Mrs. C. Theodore Wernag, who is

Continued on page eight.

Miss Louise Gould DAVIS C. SANFORD PHOTO

Friday was marked by the debut of Miss Elizabeth Thayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Buren Thayer, of 166 Monroe Place. No debutante of the season received lovelier flowers. They filled the large rooms of the Thayer home. Miss Thayer wore a frock of soft white satin and shadow lace, ornamented with opalescent beads, and Mrs. Thayer was attired in violet chiffon velvet. Mrs. James L. Morgan and Mrs. James Phelps, of Manhattan, the latter a sister of the hostess, received with them.

The debutantes assisting were Miss Frances Cutts, Miss Mary Sanger, Miss Drusilla Gravens, Miss Miriam Dow, Miss Helen Hinman, Miss Ruth Jenks, Miss Constance Marks, Miss Polly Duncann, Miss Katherine Ketcham, Miss Gertrude Thurston, Miss Lois Minton, Miss Eleanor Tyler, Miss Louise Ruxton, Miss Catharine Mumford, of Brooklyn; Miss Anna Snow, of Philadelphia, and Miss Nina Newton, of Ridgefield, Conn. They were entertained after the reception at a dinner and dance.

Soft, Smooth Hands—A Gift That Every Woman Deserves. And one that is within every woman's reach easily, certainly, economically. VELOGEN will play Santa Claus to your hands and give them what they most want—natural beauty. Apply VELOGEN liberally at night—before retiring—and again in the morning. Wipe away the excess after rubbing in well on hands, wrists, arms, cheeks and lips. It transforms the dry, cracked and often painful condition of the skin to Nature's own softness and smoothness—relieves redness and chaps—keeps the hands things of beauty. VELOGEN will never leave the slightest stain or smear on the clothing, nor will it promote the growth of hair. Ask your druggist for it—25c a tube. ADV.

Cammann, of Elizabeth, N. J., to William H. Hooker, of Brooklyn. No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Cammann has been a frequent visitor to Staten Island, and is very well known among the members of the younger set.

Miss Gertrude A. Tate will give a the dansant at the Curtis Lyceum, St. George, on Saturday afternoon, December 26, from 4:30 until 7:30 o'clock. As these dances were such a success last year, it is expected that this dance will be very largely attended.

The committee includes Mrs. J. Harry Alexander, Mrs. Henry T. Boody, Mrs. Edward W. Brown, Mrs. William L. De Bost, Mrs. Arthur Kavanagh, Mrs. Edward Bronson King, Mrs. Alfred King, Mrs. Austen P. Kelley, Mrs. George Osgood Lord, Mrs. Lewis Nixon, Mrs. Walter W. Price, Mrs. Frank H. Phipps, Jr., Mrs. Charles Dewar Semons, Jr., Mrs. Otis T. Williams, Mrs. Havelock Walker and Mrs. Arthur S. Walker.

Douglas Kilduff, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Katherine Kilduff, of Central av., Tompkinsville, has been assigned command of the torpedo boat destroyer Perkins. He assumed his new command at Charleston on December 15.

Miss Marion Toedt, of Manhattan, formerly of Staten Island, was the guest of Miss Lucy King, of Bard av., Livingston, for the week end.

Miss Elizabeth Irving, of Henderson av., New Brighton, who is a student at Miss Porter's School, Farmington, Conn., returned to her home on Wednesday to spend her Christmas vacation.

Henry L. Turnbull, of Lenox Place, New Brighton, will sail on Wednesday on the steamship Baltic for Germany, where he will stay for a few months on business.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carter (Miss Marguerite Stevens), of Montclair, N. J., spent the week end as the guests of Mrs. Carter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. West Brighton. A meeting of the Neighborhood Bridge Club was held last Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William De Bost, on Bard av., Livingston. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. David J. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. William Y. Wemple, Dorothy Wemple, Mrs. Lane E. Rianhard, Mrs. North McLean, Mrs. George Benziger, Mrs. Eugene L. Richards, Miss Louise Irving, Mrs. William Holt, school chapel, was the most representative that a call for volunteers has ever Omicon Society of the Staten Island Academy will give a the dansant in the Curtis Lyceum, St. George, on the afternoon of Saturday, January 2, from 4 until 7 o'clock.

CHRISTMAS TREE FOR LAKEWOOD

Many Special Features Arranged for Entertainment of Visitors During Holidays.

Lakewood, Dec. 19.—The big feature of the holiday season here will be a community Christmas tree and illumination on Christmas Eve. A large decorated tree will be planted in the centre of the town. Private residences and the business houses will be decorated and illuminated. A chorus of two hundred voices are practising anthems and carols. The singing and music by the Lakewood Band will be a feature. Ex-Governor John Franklin Fort will deliver a Christmas oration. After the services the singers will divide in groups of twenty and scatter about the town and sing. One band will go to the Paul Kimball Memorial Hospital and sing for the benefit of the patients there.

Sojourners have been enjoying the first skating of the season here this week. If conditions permit, a hockey match between Lakewood and Red Bank will be arranged during the holiday week. The Lakewood Country Club will be one of the popular points of interest during the holiday week. The two-day tournament for New Year's Day and the day following has been well received by golfers and the entries assure a good field for the mid-winter event.

A big shoot of the Laurel House Gun Club is scheduled for Christmas. There will be a 150-bird handicap event, with special prizes. Sojourners forced out of Europe by the war still continue to invade Lakewood. This week Mrs. Graham Boucher, of Hampshire, England, arrived at the Laurel-in-the-Pines. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dickinson, Miss E. Scarborough and Miss L. A. Scull, of Paris, arrived at the Laurel House. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gun, son, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Caine and Mr. and Mrs. James Bruce, of Boston, who usually spend the winter abroad, arrived this week to remain the entire season. Mr. and Mrs. George Gould are entertaining a large house party over the week-end at Georgiantown.

Included in the numerous teas and social functions of the week was the tea and reception of the girls of Miss Samson's School. On the same evening Miss Margaret Romaine entertained the girls of the school at a dinner and dance at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Girard Romaine.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Barrymore, of New York, have been spending the week at the Laurel-in-the-Pines. Mrs. Lillian Russell Moore is spending a fortnight at the Lakewood Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Morrison, of Auburn, N. Y., are here for the holidays, with their daughter, Miss Katherine Morrison.

LENOX AND THE BERKSHIRE HILLS

Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre Will Leave Monday for Washington.

Lenox, Mass., Dec. 19.—Winter residents are anticipating the break in the quiet of the town by the coming of the holiday house parties. Beginning just before Christmas and lasting well into New Year's there will be unusual gaiety, which even the autumn season hardly approaches. Mr. and Mrs. George Baty Blake will have a house party; Malcolm D. Sloane has leased the Rogers cottage for the time; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Winans Whistler will entertain their son, Ross T. Whistler, and a party of Harvard men; Mr. and Mrs. Giraud Foster, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Osgood Field, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frothingham, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Delafield and Mr. and Mrs. David T. Dana will have house guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre will leave Williamstown Monday for Washington, to pass the holidays with the President. A report in Williamstown is that Mrs. Sayre will remain for some time with her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Stevens went to New York the first of the week, after ten days with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frothingham.

A curling club has been organized, with Giraud Foster, Samuel Frothingham, William B. O. Field, David T.

Established for Fifty Years

H. Jaeckel & Sons

Holiday Gifts in Fur

VERY SMART BUT INEXPENSIVE SETS IN FUR—MUFFS AND STOLERS IN FOX AND SKUNK.

FUR COATS AND FUR LINED COATS FOR MOTOR, STREET OR EVENING WEAR.

Thirty-second Street West Number Sixteen (Our Only Address)